English Ministry Service

22nd May 2011

Speaker: Rev Mark Keown

Sermon Topic: Living in the Shadow of Death

Bible Reading: Philippians 1:19-26

A warm welcome to Mark, and other visitors to this morning's service. Please join us for morning tea after the service.

FAMILY SERVICE NEXT SUNDAY

Come and celebrate an all-age-together service with a difference next Sunday. We ask that you wear soft-soled shoes if possible and bring a cushion or picnic rug if you have one. Please be on time or you may find that you'll miss out on the best 'seats in the house'. See you next Sunday bright and early ready for worship!!!

FELLOWSHIP/GAMES BBQ NEXT SUNDAY

Our monthly time for fellowship and games is on next Sunday evening from 6.00-9.00pm. Robert O always has some intriguing games up his sleeve, while others opt for card games or table tennis – or just come and chat.

PRAYERS

- ✦ Ministry Needs: provision of a Cantonese-speaking Minister for the Cantonese Ministry and an English-speaking Minister for the English Ministry.
- ✦ Jenny, Tony and family in the loss of Jenny's beloved brother.
- ✦ Students facing their mid-year exams

OUR LOVE AND SUPPORT FOR JENNY & FAMILY

Our condolences and prayers for Jenny and Tony, Melissa, Eden and Jessica, in the passing of Jenny's brother in Palmerston North. Please remember them in your prayers.

"IN YOU GLORY, LORD" CONCERT with Peter Chung

Many of us will remember Peter Chung, who got us all singing with feeling and with gusto at the singing workshop at Church Camp last year. Peter has organised a concert with 10 Christian classical singers who will be singing solos and in small groups. The concert is called "In You Glory, Lord!"

These 10 people (including Peter Chung) are on a tour around New Zealand and Australia. There will be two evening performances in Auckland on Friday 27th May at 7.30pm @ the Baptist Tabernacle and Saturday, 28th May at 7.30pm @ the Holy Trinity Cathedral. Tickets are $30. If you would like to go, Ming and Charlie (CM) have some tickets at church this morning or you could contact them on

Total offering for April 2011 $7,695.70

Average weekly offering for April 2011 $1,923.93

Total YTD offering $82,550.40

YTD average weekly offering $1,919.78

'AUCKLAND MATTERS'

Everyone is warmly invited to the Knox Centre for Ministry & Leadership special "AUCKLAND MATTERS" event on Monday July 11.

You will enjoy a good meal and a stimulating speaker, and you will have an opportunity to meet staff and students from the Knox Centre and hear about the latest developments in ministry formation and training in the Presbyterian Church.

This event is free. The only thing we want from you is your company! We hope you will join us. If you are coming, please request a place by email registrar@knoxcollege.ac.nz by Wednesday 6 July at the latest. Your registration is vital for catering purposes. We have 75 places available.

Monday 11 July at Grafton Hall, 40 Seafield View Rd, Auckland.

Drinks and nibbles from 6p.m, dinner at 7pm, followed by a keynote address at 8.15pm by Andrew Bell (who comes highly recommended as a speaker).

"I was a stranger! – welcoming the 1.5 Generation"

An Address by the Rev Andrew Bell

Andrew will be known to many folk through his leadership of the Global Mission Office. He is now NZ CEO of the Fred Hollows Foundation, overseeing the Foundation's work in the Asia-Pacific region. Andrew recently completed a Masters in Theology. His research thesis examined the experience of 1.5 generation migrants to Auckland and the opportunities and challenges this generation poses to church modes of hospitality and mission. The learning from this project is relevant for both the migrant ethnic churches and Kiwi European churches. It promises to be a stimulating address.
