17th April 2016

praying for others

- Rev Tang & Rev Vogel as they minister at ACPC – for wisdom & God's guidance in leading our ministries.
- ACPC congregations – that we are strengthened by the Holy Spirit and transformed by God's personal direction to us through His Word.
- Earthquake in southern Japan – that the rescue effort is able to reach as many people as possible, and for comfort and strength for those who have been affected by the earthquake.

Small is beautiful – but so is big

Matthew 13: 31-35

What are we here for?

In Revelation 3, Jesus warns the church not to be complacent, not to be lukewarm... so it's important to focus on what we are here for, and to pray how individually and as a congregation we can know Jesus and make Him known...

Mission Statement

To know Jesus and make Him known,
as a community of God's people in inner-city Auckland and to do so through hospitality,
service to others and sharing our faith.

Key Bible Verse for 2016-17

"But in your hearts, revere Christ as Lord.

Always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give a reason for the hope that you have.

But do this with gentleness and respect"

1 Peter 3:15

Congratulations Ginny!!!

Many blessings to you today on your dedication and your continuing journey with God.

I have no greater joy than to hear that my children are walking in the truth.

Your Source of Security

"Let the beloved of the Lord rest secure in him, for he shields him all day long, and the one the Lord loves rests between his shoulders."

—Deuteronomy 33:12 NIV

One way to know whether you really love yourself in a healthy, balanced way or not is to ask yourself whether you are a relatively secure person or whether you struggle with insecurity. Simply put, insecurity is a feeling that you really aren't "good enough," or needing others' approval in order to be confident. It has to do with whether your life is built on the unshakable foundation of God's love or the faulty foundation of what others think of you.

Your security does not depend on your bank account, your job, the way you look, other people's opinions of you or even the way others treat you. I know this can be tempting in today's world, but I urge you not to base your security on your educational or professional achievements, the labels inside your clothes, your car, or the house you live in. Don't base it on whether you are married or single, or whether you have children or not. Don't look for your security anywhere but in Jesus Christ and in Him alone. He is the only one whose opinion matters, and He is the only one who will love you forever and never change His thoughts toward you.

Re-read the scripture for today and be encouraged. You are the beloved of the Lord and you can rest secure in Him.

Love Yourself Today: Start working with God to develop a rock-solid sense of security. He loves you, and through Him you can do whatever you need to do in life.
