praying for others

- Rev Tang & Rev Vogel as they minister at ACPC – for wisdom & God's guidance in leading our ministries.
- ACPC congregations – we pray that we can make a fresh commitment to pursue You today, excited to see the amazing things You will do in our lives. We pray for wisdom, enthusiasm, and discernment for how and where we can better serve in our community.
- For our neighbours in the city – that we take the opportunities to show Your kindness, love, mercy, grace and hope to our neighbourhood, especially those without homes.
- For those who have recently lost loved ones – that you comfort them during this time of mourning.

Experiencing Fear and Faith

'In all to which you set your hand.' Deuteronomy 28:8 NKJV

The word vocation comes from the Latin word vocare, which means 'spiritual calling'. Every vocation, regardless of what it is, is a calling from God. And once you start to see your job in that light, you'll find it easier to believe God wants to bless you on the job.

So, with that in mind you need to: (1) Pursue work compatible with your gifts. 'If anyone serves, he should do it with the strength God provides, so that in all things God may be praised' (1 Peter 4:11 NIV). (2) Learn everything possible about your job. 'Let the wise listen and add to their learning' (Proverbs 1:5 NIV). (3) Recognise God as your true employer. 'Serve wholeheartedly, as if you were serving the Lord, not men, because you know that the Lord will reward everyone for whatever good he does' (Ephesians 6:7-8 NIV). (4) See work as God's gift, not punishment. 'When God gives any man wealth and possessions, and enables him to enjoy them, to accept his lot and be happy in his work - this is a gift of God' (Ecclesiastes 5:19 NIV). (5) Use criticism to your advantage. In fact, make it work for you. Ask for suggestions and correction. 'Poverty and shame will come to him who disdains correction, but he who regards a rebuke will be honoured' (Proverbs 13:18 NKJV). (6) Do more than what's expected. 'Whoever compels you to go one mile, go with him two' (Matthew 5:41 NKJV). (7) See the Lord as your work partner. Stay Christ-conscious throughout the day as you perform your duties, and 'the Lord will command the blessing on you...and in all to which you set your hand' (Deuteronomy 28:8 NKJV).
